The overall rating of reviews and the comments from our residents and their families demonstrates Cavalier Senior Living’s commitment to provide the highest quality-of-life for each of our residents.”

“Reviews from a trusted platform are a critical part of the customer experience when new prospective residents are evaluating senior living communities and home care providers,” said Sue Johansen, Executive Vice President, Community Network, A Place for Mom. “We collect more than 50,000 new reviews every year, with over 400,000 on our platform in total, which provide first-hand experiences of senior living communities and home care providers, offering invaluable insights on areas that matter most to families like quality of care, feedback on staff, and costs.” This year’s Best of Senior Living Awards recognize top providers in nearly every state and several Canadian provinces based on reviews from seniors and their loved ones. The top reviews across aplaceformom.com often highlight the excellent care and support provided by senior living communities. A Place for Mom has found that, on average, families are six times more likely to move into communities with recent reviews, further reinforcing the importance of reviews in helping families make decisions.
